JACKSON ESTATE “VINTAGE WIDOW” PINOT NOIR

2012

Double Gold, 95 Points, San Francisco International Wine Competition, June 2015

Cameron Douglas MS, Hospitality Business Magazine, March 2015

A very generous and fruity bouquet with dark red fruits of cherry and plum all laced with sweet oak spice and muscle; theres complexity too, somewhat masked by a youthful oak and fruit core. On the palate – forward, fruity, oaky and dry; medium tannins with fine moments; medium acidity and a generous lengthy finish. Nice!

2010

5 Stars and Best Buy, Cuisine Magazine 2012

"Jackson Estate is another Marlborough Winery to watch for. I love the florals, the acidity and the balance, said Alister Mailing. It's dark in the glass, still very young and tight with dark plum and savoury notes. Perfect with rare roast beef."

5 Stars, Michael Coopers Buyers Guide to NZ Wine 2013

"Vintage Widow on the label is reference to 'our families, often forgotten at vintage'"
A 5 star red at a 4 star price. The 2010 (5 Stars) was grown on clay soils in the Waihopai Valley, matured in French oak casks and bottled unfiltered and unfiltered. Deeply coloured with a fragrant bouquet suggestive of well ripened dark plums, it is generous, sweet fruited and supple, with impressive concentration, finely integrated oak, and a spicy, long finish. A delicious and very age-worthy wine, it should peak at 2013-2015."
